It is with great joy that I write to congratulate Kyung An High School on the 25th anniversary of its founding.

My own connection with the school goes back twenty-two years to when I first came to Andong, and shortly thereafter became the second 이사장. Who would have dreamed in those days of early beginnings that the new little school would so soon reach its present high state of excellence.

Only the goodness of God, and the faithful support of the churches and presbyteries, and the sacrificial labors of faculty and staff, and the
